What is the intended benefit of the rule?

The intended benefit of the rule is to provide guidance for administering the Research and Information Services Division of Iowa Workforce Development.

Is the benefit being achieved? Please provide evidence.

Yes. The Research and Information Services Division continues to run fluidly.

What are the costs incurred by the public to comply with the rule?

None.

What are the costs to the agency or any other agency to implement/enforce the rule?

The Research and Information Services Division continues to employ a team of state workers who provide research and information relating to Iowa’s Workforce.

Do the costs justify the benefits achieved? Please explain.

Yes, data related to Iowa’s workforce is critical for understanding the state’s growth and business initiatives. The Research and Information Services Division provides information that assists decision-makers in investing for Iowa’s future workforce.

Are there less restrictive alternatives to accomplish the benefit? YES NO

If YES, please list alternative(s) and provide analysis of less restrictive alternatives from other states, if applicable. If NO, please explain.

The Research and Information Services Division is necessary for providing data that government, businesses, and educational institutions use regarding Iowa’s workforce. These entities utilize the data to make workforce decisions.
