What is the intended benefit of the rule?

The administrative rules govern the procedures for contested case proceedings brought pursuant to Iowa Code chapter 96 regarding employment security.

Is the benefit being achieved? Please provide evidence.

Yes. The general public utilizes this administrative code to deal with contested cases involving employment security and unemployment insurance.

What are the costs incurred by the public to comply with the rule?

None.

What are the costs to the agency or any other agency to implement/enforce the rule?

Iowa Workforce Development has significant expense involved with overseeing employment security and unemployment insurance. However, the updates to this administrative code section should have no impactful change in cost.

Do the costs justify the benefits achieved? Please explain.

Yes. Employment security and unemployment insurance are required under federal and state law. The administrative code outlines the rules necessary to comply with the law.

Are there less restrictive alternatives to accomplish the benefit? YES NO

If YES, please list alternative(s) and provide analysis of less restrictive alternatives from other states, if applicable. If NO, please explain.

Employment security and unemployment insurance are required under federal and state law. The administrative code outlines the rules necessary to comply with the law.

Does this chapter/rule(s) contain language that is obsolete, outdated, inconsistent, redundant, or unnecessary language, including instances where rule language is duplicative of statutory language? [list chapter/rule number(s) that fall under any of the above categories]
