

The following is a list of waiver-eligible hazardous activities that may be performed by 16- and 17-year-old(s) under certain circumstances under Iowa's new law. Code definitions for listed activities are available in Chapter 240 of the Iowa Administrative Code (you will need to scroll through the link to find the specific activity you are looking for.)

- Operation of power-driven woodworking machines.
- Operation of elevators and other power-driven hoisting apparatus.
- Operation of power-driven metal forming, punching, and shearing machines.
- Operation of certain power-driven bakery machines. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, this subsection does not apply to the operation of pizza dough rollers that are a type of dough sheeter that have been constructed with safeguards contained in the basic design so as to prevent fingers, hands, or clothing from being caught in the in-running point of the rollers, that have gears that are completely enclosed, and that have microswitches that disengage the machinery if the backs or sides of the rollers are removed, only when all the safeguards detailed in this subsection are present on the machinery, are operational, and have not been overridden. However, this subsection does apply to the setting up, adjusting, repairing, oiling, or cleaning of pizza dough rollers as described in this subsection.
- Operation of certain power-driven paper products machines, except loading balers if the machine is powered off and the key is stored in a separate area from the machine.
- Manufacturing of brick, tile, and related products.
- Operation of circular saws, band saws, and guillotine shears.
- Wrecking, demolition, and shipbreaking operations.
- Roofing operations.
- Excavation.
- Work activities in or about foundries; provided that office, shipping, and assembly area employment shall not be prohibited by this chapter.
- Operation of dry cleaning or dyeing machinery.
- Transmission, distribution, or delivery of goods or messages between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 5:00 a.m.
